

Extra Credit Opportunities

- ✓ You can turn in as many of the extra credit projects below as you want.
- ✓ Points will go towards the appropriate subject.
- ✓ Projects must be creative, neat and show reasonable amount of effort to get full credit.
- ✓ Not all projects will be worth the same amount of points.
- ✓ If you think of an appropriate project that is not listed below please check with me.
- ✓ Please only do projects from units we have covered thus far. As we get to new units and topics you may then complete projects in those sections.

Social Studies

- Make a poster that displays information taken from the unit (25pts)
- Make a mobile that displays information taken from the unit (25pts)
- Make a diorama that displays information taken from the unit (25pts)
- Write a play with dialogue between individuals that is realistic for the time period they come from. (25pts)
- Draw a picture that shows relationships or events covered in the unit. (20pts)
- Write interview questions and possible answers for an individual from the unit. (20pts)
- Read a chapter book that is set in a time period we've covered and write a book report. (50pts)
- Choose a mission to build and write a report on. (25pts)

Science

- Make a poster that displays information and topics taken from the unit. (25pts)
- Make a mobile that displays information and topics from the unit. (25pts)
- Make a diorama that displays information and topics from the unit. (25pts)
- A science project coming from any of the units covered. (25pts – 50pts)
- Complete pages from your science packet that we did not get to. (20pts)

Language Arts/Literature

- Read a chapter book and make one of the following: (25pts)
 - Make a poster
 - Make a mobile
 - Make a diorama
 - Write a book report
 - Write a book review
- Write a short story (25pts)
- Write a play (25pts)
- Write a poem (20pts)
- Read more than 30 minutes every night or read on Sundays. (Have your parent write the amount next to the date on your reading log.) (5pts. Per 30 min.)
- Write extra journal entries. (25pts)